United Way of Williamson County is pleased to announce that comedian and actor Bill Engvall will be host to a celebrity bowling event on Thursday, February 23, 2012 at Mel's Lone Star Lanes in Georgetown, TX. The funnyman will lead a team of celebrity bowlers to benefit United Way of Williamson County (UWWC) as well as honor his sister, Janet Engvall McTigue, former Executive Director of Georgetown Area United Way.

Known for his ability to share the humor in everyday situations, Bill Engvall is one of the top comedians today and among the busiest. In conjunction with the bowling tournament, the Janet Engvall McTigue Advancing Excellence in Nonprofits Award will be presented. This annual $10,000 award was established to honor Janet's commitment to strengthening nonprofit agencies and to serving the most vulnerable members of our community. Janet, in addition to serving the Georgetown Area United Way from 2002-2005, was a practicing attorney in Texas. She died in 2007.

The Literacy Council of Williamson County is the 2012 Janet Engvall McTigue Advancing Excellence Award winner and the Engvall family will present the award on February 23.
